HISTORY GAME

A police officer who does not follow the customs of others, known as thick-skinned by the bandits, was given the mission to end a gang of bandits in one of the most violent places in Maime, the police officer was caught in a trap, surviving he decides to seek revenge, the bandits will regret having been born.

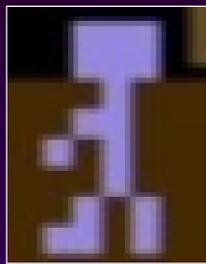

GAME OBJECTIVE

The player controls the police officer who has a nickname of The Skull, his objective is to defeat all the bandits on the screen, they walk between above and below the sidewalk, the bandits are in vehicles that pass by the highway and helicopters, shooting at the police officer, so shoot them, before they shoot our anti-hero.

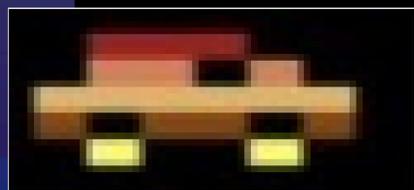

GAME INFORMATION

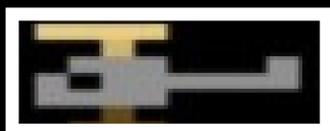

The bandits that appear on both sides of the street sidewalk, walk from one side to the other, but do not confuse them with innocents, to attack them, only when they flash red and yellow, giving the player time to shoot them both at the same time.

Havan and cars, which are going from one side to the other, they also flash red, so the skull will have to shoot at them too, to prevent being hit, a blue Havan, also flashes yellow, but be careful not to confuse it with innocent drivers.

The bandits also fly overhead to attack our police officer in an aerial attack, so be careful what's on your head.
